LINKING NEWARK'S PAST WITH ITS FUTURE -- Architectural model of a frieze removed from the Military Park Hotel which will stand at the entrance to Theater Square, a public plaza adjacent to the New Jersey Performing Arts Center (NJPAC) under construction in Newark. The historic hotel was razed to make way for the Arts Center but friezes which adorned the building were saved for use in the landscape design of the square. A $1.8 million grant to complete construction of the plaza has been awarded to NJPAC by the Economic Development Administration (EDA) of the U.S. Department of Commerce bringing the total EDA commitment to Theater Square to $3.8 million.
